

EPFO: Prominent display of the Form 5A extract at the establishment's entrance or website and mobile applicationIntroduction

On 7 October 2025, the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation ('EPFO') issued an order directing the employers of the covered establishments to prominently display the extract of Form 5A at either of the following locations:

1. At the entrance of the establishment OR
2. On the establishment's website (along with the mobile application, if any).

Form 5A extract to be displayed

Form 5A is called 'Return of ownership' and is required to be furnished by the covered establishment to the regional provident fund commissioner. The present order requires the following extract of Form 5A to be displayed:

1. EPF Code
2. Registered Name of the Establishment
3. Date of Coverage
4. Number of Branches and Primary Branch Address
5. Regional Office

within 15 days from the issue of the said order.

Therefore

The employers will now need to display the extract of Form 5A at the entrance of their establishments or on their websites (and mobile applications, if any) within 15 days from the date of the said order, i.e. by 22 October 2025. The display of the information may ease the field officers and inspectors to carry out the verifications in a hassle-free manner. Availability of the information on the establishment's website/mobile application ensures easy access to such information by the employees and the PF authorities without the need to request the documents.
